

LIFE IN ANCIENT GREECE

TASK 4/5

1 PRESENTATION PREPARATION

Imagine you are Clisthenes and you have to introduce yourself to others. Use these phrases to help you build your speech:

- "My name is..."
- "I think that..."
- "Sometimes I fear that..."
- "I live in..."
- "I dream about..."
- "I would like to change..."
- "I work as a..."
- "I'm proud of..."
- "I hope for the future that..."

You can use the following lines to take notes for your speech:

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Here is an idea of how you could do your presentation:

"My name is Clisthenes. I live in Athens with my family and train every day to join the army. I work to be strong, fast, and brave. I like my father, who was a great soldier. I firmly believe that protecting our city is an honor. I dream of one day fighting alongside my companions to defend Athens. I am proud of not giving up, even when training is tough. Sometimes I fear I'm not as brave as I wish to be. I would like to change the way some people see war, as if it were a game. My greatest wish for the future is to serve my city with courage... and come home alive."
