You can use the following lines to take notes for your speech:

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Here is an idea of how you could do your presentation:

"My name is Eumaeus. I come from the island of Naxos, but now I live in the bustling port of Piraeus. I work to sell wine, oil, and pottery to every corner of Athens. I firmly believe that merchants are the soul that connects cities and cultures. I dream of opening my own shop near the Agora and seeing my name on a sign. I am proud of my ability to negotiate with wisdom and respect. Sometimes I fear that bad luck at sea could ruin my business. I would like to change the mistrust that people sometimes feel toward merchants. My greatest wish for the future is to prosper without forgetting where I come from."
