

LIFE IN ANCIENT GREECE

TASK 4/5

1 PRESENTATION PREPARATION

Imagine you are Menesicles and you have to introduce yourself to others. Use these phrases to help you build your speech:

- "My name is..."
- "I live in..."
- "I work as a..."
- "I think that..."
- "I dream about..."
- "I'm proud of..."
- "Sometimes I fear that..."
- "I would like to change..."
- "I hope for the future that..."

You can use the following lines to take notes for your speech:

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Here is an idea of how you could do your presentation:

"My name is Menesicles. I live in a humble neighborhood of Athens with my wife and children. I work to raise the great structures of the Parthenon, stone by stone. I firmly believe that the effort of simple men also builds the greatness of Athens. I dream of a peaceful life in a home of my own in the countryside. I am proud of my skill to build with precision and strength. Sometimes I fear that our work will be forgotten beneath the names of famous artists. I would like to change the contempt some people feel toward workers. My greatest wish for the future is that our children may live with more dignity."
