

LIFE IN ANCIENT GREECE

TASK 4/5

1 PRESENTATION PREPARATION

Imagine you are Pheidippides and you have to introduce yourself to others. Use these phrases to help you build your speech:

- "My name is..."
- "I think that..."
- "Sometimes I fear that..."
- "I live in..."
- "I dream about..."
- "I would like to change..."
- "I work as a..."
- "I'm proud of..."
- "I hope for the future that..."

You can use the following lines to take notes for your speech:

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Here is an idea of how you could do your presentation:

"My name is Pheidippides. I live in Athens, but I spend more time on the roads than at home. I work to carry urgent messages between cities, running without rest. I firmly believe that a single runner can save an entire city. I dream of the moment when, upon delivering a message, I see my people safe and joyful. I am proud of my endurance and my loyalty. Sometimes I fear that my legs will fail before I reach my destination. I would like to change the fear that sometimes overtakes me in the loneliness of the road. My greatest wish for the future is that Athens may live in peace, without the need for more desperate runs."
